

I encourage the FCC not to diminish the strength of Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law. As a parent and educator it is important to me to stop solicitors from interfering with our family by consistently calling homes who have no interest in products and no ability to pay for them. Please do not give solicitors more power.